CLERK, U.S. DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

RE: C 07- 02111 MMC
C 07- 01446 MMC
C 07- 02981 MMC

Subject: "Emergency Motion and Request for Status
On All pending Cases and for copy/copies of Any Court Order issued to Any Federal Agencies"
"MY LIFE IS IN SERIOUS AND IMMINENT DANGER AT CCR System/ASP, Arenal"

Dear Hon. Judge Chesney:

please be advised that I have submitted several Emergency motions and Request for Rulings on the above-entitled cases with NO Response from the Court to date. For the Record, petitioner is currently at Santa Clara County facility on Remand from Sixth District Court of Appeals.

This Court has a mandate duty to Rule on petitioner's writ, Emergency motions and all Related cases.
Petitioner's Life is still in Imminent danger within the CCR System/ASP, Arenal and can Never be returned to CCR.

(1)

According to Santa Clara County Facility Booking Records, petitioner still has a CDCR Hold/Retainer to return him to - Asp, Arenal upon completion of his Court proceedings.

As a Matter of Law, petitioner is - entitled to Redress and Relief including - immediate Release and discharge from CDCR System / Asp, Arenal if the Court will Rule on his petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus, which has been pending over - Eight months and counting without a mandatory order to show cause issued within 3 to 20 days. See 28 U.S.C. § 2243.

Further petitioner's petition was originally filed on 4/16/2007 and Amended on July 06, 2007 (Bucket # 5, C:07-02111 MMC) and this Court has statutory duty to Rule and Grant Petitioner Relief and Redress he is entitled to in the interest of Justice.

Petitioner's Life is still in danger and his issues are never moot because - petitioner is still suffering from the effects and subjected to collateral consequences of conspiracy to commit murder, attempted murder on family, false Imprisonment, Kidnapping, Entrapment, Torture, illegal seizure and so forth.

Petitioner has not been forced with Any Court orders issued to Any Federal Agency or any entity and therefore has no knowledge of any proceedings please Respond on Emergency Basis. Thanks Respectfully ~~Chen~~ - (Attorney for Petitioner)
